do something in the fireworks line.

"We're after Nelson now," says "I have an idea that Moran can beat him, and the little fellow is chuck full of confidence. It isn't that we think Nelson has gone back. We are figuring on the basis of the Nelson-Attell fight a couple of years ago, when Nelson was undoubtedly at his best. Attell carried the fight to Nelson for six rounds, and hit him wherever he pleased. It's true that Attell was tired out at the end of the siath, but he wasn't in training. He went in off the reel. Moran is stronger than Attell, anyway, and can bit harder.
